DREHER IS 25 YEARS OLD

This year Dreher High School is one quarter of a century old. For the twenty-fifth time, a group of people will leave the treasured memories of high school days behind and go forth to represent Dreher in the world. We who are leaving Dreher this year can look with pride at the manner of achievement that we became accustomed to while we were here. We are, however, not relying on past glory for present prestige, but we strive instead to set an example, a challenge for those who follow.

This class showed identical experiences of twenty-four similar groups of people, but somehow ours seemed different. We were faced with the smiling, laughing face of Dreher in victory, and the somber face of defeat. But, through it all, the character she lent stood us in good stead.

We are standing on the threshold of the second quarter century of a great institution, and we can look ahead to an equally impressive era to come. Dreher is growing and changing with every passing moment, but we, her people, must both change to meet her new needs and remain the same to preserve her traditions. The task is no easy one.

We have looked backward to Dreher's first twenty-five years and forward to her next twenty-five. The purpose of this book is to allow all a chance to look over the Silver Year, 1962-63. As we leaf through the book we will have the opportunity to reflect on the past, to speculate on the future, and to review our years at Dreher. It is this purpose to which this 1963 BLUE DEVIL was dedicated throughout its inception and production.

DEDICATION

Because of true interest and unlimited enthusiasm in working with young people—

Because of high scholastic standards exacted from students—

Because of extracurricular sponsorship, combined with hard work—

Because of you—

We, the Blue Devil Staff of 1963 are proud to dedicate its Silver Anniversary Annual to you—

Mrs. Myra Wyman

DR. GUY L. VARN, Superintendent of Columbia City Schools. To Dr. Varn we owe our deepest gratitude for the interest he has always shown in Dreher, and for his capable guidance in making the City Schools the best system in the state.

Dreher Administration Expands Curriculum

MR. ARLIE W. WHITTINGHILL, Principal. "Mr. Whit" is the kind of principal who keeps an eye on all the varied activities of a large school, and takes a personal interest in each one of them. Always alert for new ideas for improving the caliber of instruction, he is never afraid to introduce courses or to experiment with innovations. At the same time he is the kind and particular friend of each student and teacher at Dreher.

Students Recognize Capable Guidance

In this twenty-fifth anniversary year, we, the student body, wish to acknowledge our pride in the administration of Dreher High School. We recognize that without the capable guidance of our administration of the past and present, Dreher would not hold its coveted position in the state.

Our principal, Mr. Whittinghill, in the years of his service, has impressed us with his capability, his intelligence, and above all, his sincere personality. His capable assistants, Mrs. Ruth Woodruff and Mr. C. W. Branch, have helped many of us to mold our plans for the future.

We thank these leaders wholeheartedly for the Guidance Center, the expanded curriculum, and the other noticeable additions to Dreher which their planning has made possible. Not the least of these improvements is the lengthening of the class periods.

Also essential to a good school are efficient secretaries. We at Dreher believe we have three of the finest secretaries around. Mrs. Vinson handles the affairs of the guidance center. Mrs. Reid, who is new this year, has efficiently taken over the complex problems of the attendance office. And Mrs. Leavitt has the involved task of handling all money matters at Dreher.

Guidance

One of the most important features of Dreher High School is the Guidance Center, located on second floor between the gym and the library. Office space has been provided for the faculty-counselors for each class, and for the Guidance Director and Vocational Counselor. RANCE

CLASSES

Through Dreher's twenty-five years of achievement and glory, many different classes have been attended by many different students. Courses offered at Dreher, although often difficult, nevertheless produced a pleasant atmosphere for a friendly student-faculty relationship. The students who have attended, who attend, and who will attend Dreher are associated with the fine reputation of the academic standard of this twenty-five year old educational establishment.

Seniors Make Honor System A Workable Reality

This year a comparatively small senior class has made a big name for itself and Dreher. Achievements not only in the scholastic and literary fields, but also in the forensic, athletic, and dramatic areas have highlighted an active and highly successful year for the Class of '63. Perhaps even more important than recognition in these various undertakings was the leadership assumed by the seniors in making the Honor System a respected and workable reality.

As in years past, the seniors have shared triumph and defeat, joy and sorrow, but they anticipate the future with optimism. Commencement will be only a beginning for these future leaders of the state, and perhaps of the nation.

GIRLS' AND BOYS' STATE. Seated: Clinch Belser, Susan Mauger, Barbara Davis. Second Row: Bill Ogburn, Hyman Rubin, Jody Smith.

Toward the end of each school year, four boys and two girls are selected from the junior class to serve as delegates to Palmetto Girls' and Boys' State. These workshops in government provide future leaders with an exciting and rewarding experience. Lasting a period of one week each, these meetings afford each delegate an opportunity to participate in well organized athletic contests, mock elections, and group discussion activities. Many interesting and well qualified speakers from throughout the state present informative lectures on government at all levels. A spirit of friendship and fellowship prevails during all phases of the program.

The Miss Hi-Miss contest is sponsored by The Johnsonian of Winthrop College. A junior and a senior girl are selected on the basis of outstanding scholarship, leadership, character, and personal attractiveness.

Winners of the King Teen contest, sponsored by Wofford College, are given an opportunity to compete for one of four scholarship awards valued at $2,800 each.

Miss DAR, an outstanding senior girl who displays the traits of dependability, service, leadership, and patriotism, is chosen in a contest sponsored by the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Senior Leaders Provide Guidance

Freshman counselors, a group of rising seniors selected by the faculty and administration, have proven to be a valuable aid in helping freshmen become acquainted with their new school. Their duties are to guide new students through the difficult first few weeks of school, and to assist the freshmen throughout the year so that they will learn to love Dreher and become better Dreherites.

Senior Committee Heads

All the important work that is involved with the senior year and graduation is handled at Dreher by committees of seniors, selected by the faculty and class officers, and directed by a faculty sponsor. The committee heads are dependable students who, in taking on these responsibilities, acquire experience for the future.

SENIOR COMMITTEE HEADS. Seated: Sharon Quave, Barbara Dean, Harriett Hunnicutt, Anne McDaniel, Anita Gardner. Standing: Clinch Belser, Joe Jackson, Gail Stanley, Doug Stirling.

Each year juniors all over the nation participate in the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying by taking a difficult and highly comprehensive test. Only one-half of one per cent of these students earn a high enough score on the test to become semifinalists. These outstanding students, who number only about 10,000 in the United States, must then substantiate their first scores by an exceptional performance on the CEEB Scholastic Aptitude Test. They then become finalists. From this group are chosen those who will receive the highly coveted Merit Scholarships. The names of all finalists are sent to many other organizations and to all colleges and universities participating in the Merit program for consideration for many scholarships other than those offered by the Merit Corporation. This year all of Dreher's semi-finalists became finalists. We feel that they indeed exemplify the high standards for which Dreher has always been known. Dreher extends her congratulations to each one pictured here for his outstanding achievement.

Who made that point?

Ple-e-e-ase let it be us.

Why, who else would it be!

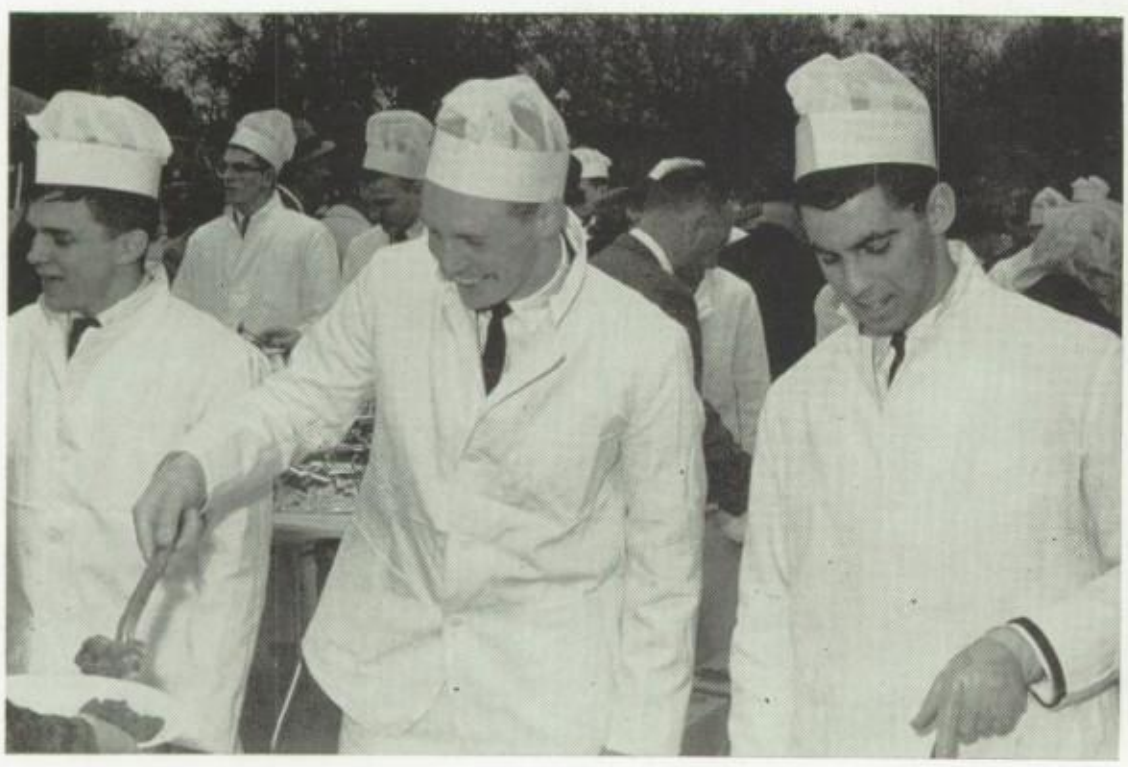
First and ten, do it again!



Grin and bear it! Thorne, Jody and Hyman serve at Governor's reception.

Is this a diploma which I see before me, the ribbon toward my hand?

Juniors Await Big Year

The junior class this year is potentially one of the strongest classes ever to enter Dreher. In the fall of 1960 they entered the school as the first freshman class since 1955. They have seen the three classes before them carry on the Dreher tradition despite increased competition from other local schools. As they now enter their senior year they are faced with the ever growing pressure of this competition.

Many members of the class of 1964 hold many positions in school activities. Juniors have set new records on standardized tests and have even surpassed seniors by their prowess. Most of next year's Dreher leaders have already been considered, and it is evident that they will serve and lead Dreher in the same or better fashion than those who have gone before them.

Now it is time for them to take the management of Dreher into their own hands. Their possibilities are as great as those of the past senior classes, and, through the hard work and incentive of past years, this class of 1964 will be as unbeatable as any!

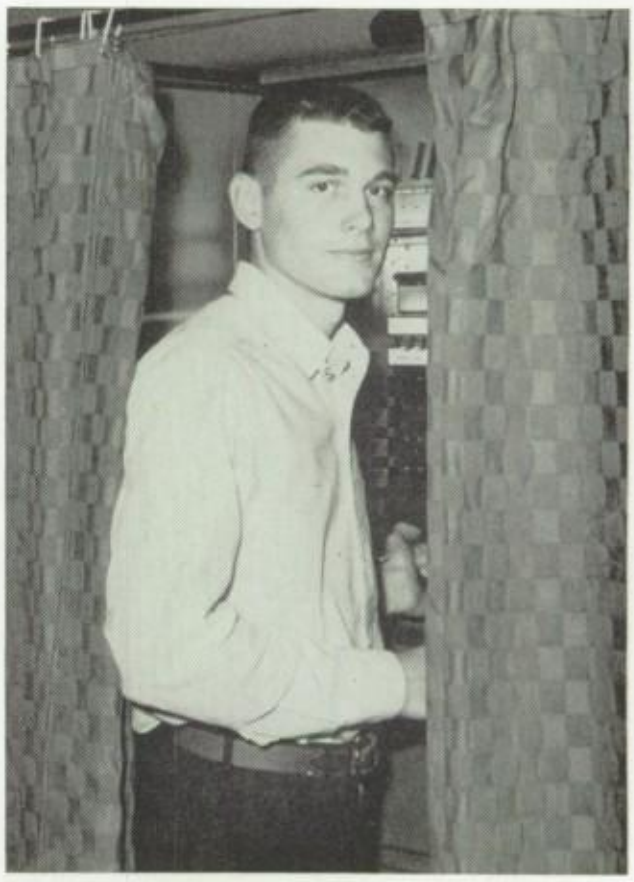
Shirley Johnston selected as Valentine Queen.

Anne Tuller is Dreher's Miss Flame contestant.

Done something you shouldn't have, boys?



Let me slip into something more comfortable, Dah-ling.

Well then, here's a Pepsi for those who think young(?).

Let's throw these back, they're too little to take home.

Hear no evil, see no evil.

Sophomores Anticipate Future

The sophomore year at Dreher might well be called a year of wishful anticipation. As a sophomore, the "wise fool" gains a feeling of greater importance. He looks forward to new experiences and more participation in school functions. However, the sophomore also delights in seeing the "Rats," or newcomers, hopelessly lost, for he can remember when he was an unfortunate "Rat" in the same predicament. Could we ever have been so simple?

We have come only half way, but we have experienced some of the difficulties which every class meets. Our sophomore year is one of hard work and concentration. Playing, partying, and relaxing, as well as hard work and study are all a part of the class activities.

We hope that in our future at Dreher we may profit from our new experiences as sophomores, retaining the good and eliminating the bad, so that our class of '65 may do her part to maintain the lofty Dreher standards of good citizenship.

Freshmen Hope To Reflect Honor Upon School

In September, three hundred ninety-three wide-eyed freshmen descended eagerly upon Dreher. We had left Hand and Crayton top class and cocky, and now that we were actually beginning Dreher, a status we had looked forward to for so long, well—we were frankly nervous and a bit scared, though we tried not to show it.

Awe-struck as we were with the largeness of Dreher and the vastness of a new and challenging stage of our education, the faculty and upperclassmen welcomed us with understanding and, through orientation programs, guided us through a period of uncertainty and confusion. At the end of the first few weeks, we were beginning to feel that we, too, belonged to Dreher High School.

With enthusiasm characteristic of the freshman class, we began a program of studies and activities in which we made new friends and shared many varied experiences. Adjusting to longer class periods and more difficult studies demanded a new approach and attitude to our educational opportunities.

The class of 1966 is grateful to be a part of the glorious history and heritage of Dreher High School, and we sincerely hope that we, individually and as a class, will reflect credit and honor on our school.

Our state and even our nation has seen many Dreher representatives at the various conventions and conferences of different organizations. Students at Dreher are offered many various opportunities to participate in the numerous functions throughout our activity program. Some activities are based on academic standing of the students, but there is certainly an extra-curricular activity at Dreher for anyone who wants to participate.

C. Association of Student Councils, the Student Council of Dreher serves an important function in all phases of school life. Student Council provides a medium through which student opinions may be heard and student problems acted upon. To be a council member is a high honor, and the member's job is to lead in upholding Dreher's principles, to help others, and to coordinate school activities and programs.

This year's council has carried out the annual projects of collecting Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets for Dreher's hard-working janitorial staff, and bringing especially good movies to the student body at a small

This year has been the first year that the honor code has been in effect. Thanks to the classes of '61 and '62, who paved the way for this new project, the honor system has worked out very satisfactorily.

In the future Dreher's Student Council will continue to fill an outstanding position in the field of student government.

Honor System Introduced At Dreher

The Honor Board is the newest organization here at Dreher. It was organized during the 1961-62 school year; however, it did not begin functioning until the beginning of the 1962-63 term. Prior to the organizing, the values and benefits that could be derived from such a system were thoroughly studied for some time by interested members of the student body.

An Honor System is a well-defined policy of recognizing five school objectives: scholarship, attendance, cooperation, loyalty, and courtesy. These standards are thought of in terms of pupil obligation. To be a desirable part of the Honor System, each student should recognize his responsibility regarding the objectives, and should at no time abuse the system. The principle is not to criticize nor to judge, but to help.

Dreherites of today should work hard and earnestly to see that this system is kept firmly established and thoroughly understood by each and every student now at Dreher, and that this understanding be transmitted from year to year to each new class.

The system is directed by an Honor Board composed of members elected by their fellow students.

National Honor Society Sponsors Varied Activities

There are four cardinal principles upon which the Dreher chapter of the National Honor Society is based: character, scholarship, leadership, and service.

Under the leadership of two capable sponsors, Mrs. Doggette and Miss Lineberger, the society has undertaken various activities in school life. Each year the members of this organization offer tutoring classes for those students who want them, sell decals, publish the student telephone directory, sponsor the senior trip, and also help the sale of class rings. They serve as marshals at school functions in the auditorium.

Another very worthy service of the society, begun in 1960, is the Charles E. Ward Memorial Scholarship, which is awarded each year to an outstanding senior.

Key Club Members Have A Busy Year

The Dreher chapter of Key Club International, a boy's service organization sponsored by Kiwanis clubs, has just completed an active and rewarding year at Dreher.

Raising and lowering the flag, which Key Club purchased this year, and polishing the trophies are just minor projects the club undertakes. The annual light bulb sale was a smashing success. For the scholarship fund. Key Club's annual international award-winning variety show boosted the treasury. Helping with the Salk Fund for polio, and aiding preparations for the governor's inauguration were other services rendered to the school and community.

The Key Club closed out a very successful year with the annual Key Club Bazaar, an affair of the carnival type, that raises money for the scholarship fund.

Anchor Club Sponsors Dance And Work Day

The Dreher High School Anchor Club has been outstanding since its beginning in 1959. The Anchor Club is sponsored by the Pilot Club, a service organization for women. Members are elected from the junior and senior classes according to service to their school and community.

The major projects of the Anchor Club are the Valentine Dance and Work Day. This year the dance, deemed a success by all, was held in the study hall after a basketball game. Shirley Johnston was crowned Valentine Queen. Work Day, held in the spring, brought in funds for the club's projects from students who donated their wages for one day's work.

The Dreher Anchor Club's original design of a club decal was sold at many schools.

With the innovation of the seventy-minute periods this year, the annual staff had to work extra hard. With A Silver Anniversary Theme it seemed we'd never get the annual to press, but with the help of our four capable faculty sponsors we managed—at long last.

All year long the annual room buzzed with activity. Before, during, and after school anybody in the hall near 223 could hear our record player blaring and see Mrs. Wyman tearing her hair about quotations, typing, and write-ups. Betty could always be found slaving over layouts and wracking her brain for snapshot ideas. Janet was constantly writing to the judge and conjuring up headlines. Yancey wore her fingers to the bone making all her lists, and Berry had a hard time getting everybody together to take pictures.

We all breathed a sigh of relief when the annual finally went to press, confident that the student body would enjoy the results of a year of hard work.

Blue Print Staff Works Hard

One of the busiest groups at Dreher is the Blue Print staff; it is constantly worrying about when and if the next issue will get to press.

When every two weeks roll around, though, the newspaper always seems to be ready in time. The Blue Print, incidentally, is one of the few high school papers in South Carolina that is published more often that once a month.

With a large crew of reporters to draw on, the editors spent endless (and we do mean endless) hours preparing the paper for the enjoyment of the student body. Thorough news coverage, unusual features, and timely editorials distinguished the paper's contribution to Dreher.

The typesetters and other members of the production staff added numerous afternoons and evenings to putting the paper together as the Varityper, which sets the type, continued to save money but not time.

The business staff handled circulation. This group made sure the paper reached students after it was printed. In addition, one of the staff's duties was obtaining enough advertisements to enable the Blue Print to support itself.

Several Blue Print reporters received writing awards in the "Story-of-the-Month" contest at different times throughout the year. The paper also received awards from the South Carolina Scholastic Press Association and the Columbia (University) Scholastic Press Association in competition with high school newspapers all over the state and nation. These awards are just another indication of the fine job all the Blue Print workers have done.

JETS For Scientific Minded Students

The Junior Engineering Technical Society is an organization for scientific minded students. To be a member one must be at least in his second year of laboratory science, and must be at least a sophomore.

The JETS Club has taken trips this year to the Bell Telephone Company, to the offices of IBM, to the Parr Nuclear Reactor, to the General Electric plant, to the DuPont plant, and to many other places of scientific interest within an hour or two's drive from Columbia.

The club has had many informative speakers to come to Dreher and demonstrate to them various phases of science and math.

The main project of the year is the sponsoring of the Dreher Science Fair.

NFL Ranks High In District

The National Forensic League had another successful year traveling to North Carolina and Georgia and throughout the state, representing Dreher in the field of speech and debate. Dreher's varsity debate team scored victories over Flora, Dentsville, University High, and Lower Richland.

The league trains students in poise and ability to think and speak on their feet. NFL offers a program including extemporaneous speaking, dramatic interpretation, original oratory, declamation, and debate. Members compete in these fields with students from other schools in the city, state, and nation.

Dreher is ranked high in the Carolina District, which consists of South Carolina, North Carolina, West Virginia, and Eastern Tennessee.

Literary Yearbook Inspires Students to Write

The Dreher Literary Yearbook is a collection of the best literary work of Dreher students for the year.

The English Department selects the most promising essays, poems, book reviews, plays, sketches, and short stories written by their students. The business staff edits and types these selections, working in unison with the art staff, which contributes decorations for the cover and section division pages.

Students use the Literary Yearbook as a guide and inspiration for their creative writing. Much of the work entered in the Dreher Yearbook has won and continues to win state and national recognition.

Art Council Is Unique

The Dreher Art Council is composed of students who are trying to foster a cultural awareness of the value of art appreciation in our society. Organized in 1951, the Art Council is unique in that it is one of the very few such organizations in the country. It provides a means through which Dreher's artistic students may receive recognition, and it also maintains a valuable collection of original art work.

The Art Council purchases original paintings and sculpture of contemporary artists, and displays these works throughout the school. Other activities include: assembly programs, a Christmas bazaar, the annual art exhibit in the spring. It plans field trips and encourages students to participate in local and state art contests.

Band Gives Concert At Governor's Mansion

The Dreher Band, under the direction of Mr. Donald L. Wood, has had one of the busiest years of its existence. During marching season it performed ten football half-time shows, participated in Clemson Band Day and U.S.C. Band Day, and marched in the Columbia Carillon Parade. The band received fifth place in Triple A bands at State Marching Festival in November, and was awarded a gold trophy for winning first place in the Pearl Harbor Day Parade.

The Dreher Band has given numerous concerts this year. They presented student body concerts at Christmas and during the spring. They gave a concert on the lawn of the Governor's Mansion the day of the inauguration of Governor Donald Russell. They presented a concert at Hand Junior High during March, and entered District Band Festival in Sumter. The band plays annually at the graduation exercises.

Five members of the band attended the All-State band clinic at Greenville in January.

Band Appears In "The Music Man"

A thirteen-piece ensemble and a nine-member stage band took part in the Fine Arts production of "The Music Man," and added talent, humor, and color to the production.

A new addition to the Dreher Band this year was the purchasing of a complete sound system, a stereo record player, and stereo tape recorder.

Majorettes Dorothy Posey, Ann Marshall, Marsha Orr, and Kay Henderson, add spice to Band's performances.

Dreher's Club Program Offers

Clubs are an integral part of the activities at Dreher. Although our new schedule allows only thirty minutes each Wednesday during third period, these minutes are well spent.

There is a club to suit almost everybody's taste or hobby. The clubs at Dreher, only a few of which are pictured on these pages, include: language clubs, Latin, French, Spanish, German; photography, radio, and other technical clubs, hunting and fishing club; knitting club; bridge and chess clubs; Future Teachers of America, and Future Business Leaders of America; discussion groups, such as Bachelors' Anonymous and Marriage and Family Relations Club; the scenery construction club, and the art lab.

Enthusiastic Latin students study Roman art and customs in Latin Club. Danny Kittrell, Mary Ann Hopkins, Perry Derrenbaker, Paul Brockington, Lynn Green, Susan Giacobbi, Linda Simpson, and Noonie Moorer.

Future Business Leaders of America are instructed by their sponsor, Mrs. Crouch. Sandra Hughes, Frances Sims, Carolyn Gray, Mrs. Crouch, and Jenny Gantt.

Knitting turns out to be a fascinating and profitable hobby. Mary Roof, Sybil Vinson, Janice Franklin, Becky Smith, Maryanne Coleman, Peggy Sims, and Linda Oakley.

A Challenge For Each Student

Every student at Dreher is encouraged to belong to a club, because this program gives the student a unique opportunity to express himself through his particular interests. Many of the clubs, such as the stage scenery construction club and the audio-visual aids group, benefit the school as a whole as well as the individual members of the clubs.

Miss Thelma Humphrey heads a committee which organizes and supervises the entire club program. Students and teachers are indebted to this committee for the enjoyable and educational hours spent during the year on these extra-curricular activities.

"I bid two spades." Members of this Bridge Club feel that relaxing with an intellectual game is a welcome break from studies.

This group builds stage scenery for productions like the Key Club Variety Show and the Fine Arts production of The Music Man. Their director is Mr. Dukes. Boyd Fulmer, Ronnie Rawls, Phil Player, Johnny Roof, Bobby Epting, Tuggy Smyser, and Kenny Brown.

Blue Devil Shop sells supplies before and after school. David Smith, Ari Sims, and Sandra Ellington.

Joe Rice and Gail Stanley make the morning announcements over the PA system. Henry McKinnon at the control board.

This committee supervises the printing of programs for each of the football games. Elizabeth McPherson, Dennis Cantey, Betty Simpson, Sherie Stockman.

Work Is The Motto Of Service Groups

These students help the volunteer nurses take care of the school's invalids each day. They are Sandra Milner, Peggy Gibbes, Sarah Ellen Patrick, Linda Michael, Anne Spears, Mikell Hammond, and Ari Sims. Parent volunteer today is Mrs. John Miller.

Office assistants run errands, answer the telephone, and take care of problems. Front Row: Sherry Potozky, Kathy Morse, Mary Morgan, Sandra Rhodes, Harriett Hunnicutt, Dannie Cunsolo. Second Row: Elizabeth McPherson, Bonnie Truesdale, Kitty Clary, Judy Younginer, Kathryn Macaulay, Mary Anne Coleman, Marie Wallis, Sybil Vinson, Jo Anne Miller, Jane Corder, Evelyn Elrod. Third Row: Patsy Craig, Ari Sims, Judy Philips, Virginia Van Seters, Janet LaBorde, Patty Miller, Min Murray Haselden, Beth Bojar, Kathy Stedman, Beth Hook, Ruth Stedman. Fourth Row: Bennie Coleman, Nancy Crook, Sandra Ellington, Ann Spears, Bill Wessinger, Diane Herson, Jimmy Cook, Dave Petty, Linda Cromwell, John Edwards, SuSu Alion.

Cafeteria workers serve lunch to the students. Steve Cross, Joseph Gerald, Rusty Rush, M. J. Robinson, Robert Leichtle, Charles Nichols.

The snack bar supplements the cafeteria by selling dairy products. These tireless workers are: Susan Neil, Mr. Epting, sponsor; Libby Biggs, Jennifer Walker, Betty Bean, Shirley Way, Elizabeth Glazebrook, Lisa DesPortes, and SuSu Alion.

SUMTER

The fine athletic program at Dreher has been headed, in one way or another, during the past twenty-five years, by our athletic director, Mr. J. K. (Jake) Henry. Although Mr. Henry will be leaving this year, and we shall miss him, still the athletic department will continue to excel in every field in which it endeavors.

Through the last twenty-five years Dreher's student bodies have cheered and watched many fellow students take part in the various phases of sports. Whether our teams were the winners or losers, we have always upheld the high ideals of Dreher High School.

ATHLETICS

The school year of 1962-63 marks the close of a greatly respected career in South Carolina high school athletics as Mr. J. K. Henry, Dreher's personable and dedicated athletic director and head baseball coach, hangs up his spikes for the last time.

Upon graduation from Erskine College where he played football and baseball, Coach Henry came to Columbia High School. In 1938 he was named Physical Education Director at Dreher High School and remains the one male teacher who has seen Dreher through all of her 25 years. From the time that "Jake" was our first football coach till this spring when his final Blue Devil baseball team takes the field, Coach Henry's dedication and zeal for competition have proven an inspiration to those who played under him and to those who watched his teams in action.

Fight Through Tough Schedule

After losing 22 seniors from the champion 1961 squad, Coaches Charles Stuart and Herb Robinson worked hard with an eager, but injury-ridden group. During the early part of the season, the team seesawed from winning one game to losing the next, but came on fast in the second half of the season by winning the last four games.

The experience at quarterback and a fleet of fast halfbacks marked the team's success in turning in a record of 6-5-1. A heavy line and incessant drilling enabled Dreher to give up fewer points than any other area team.

The bruising Blue Devils placed three players on the All-Area team along with several honorable mentions.

The backing offered by a spirited student body spurred the team during its low moments. Attendance was large at all games, including those played out of town.

HOMECOMING QUEEN Lorraine Casey

MAID OF HONOR Penny Howell

Casey And Howell Reign Over Homecoming

The 1962 candidates for Homecoming Queen, Lorraine Casey, Penny Howell, Betty Simpson, Judy Steppe, and Jo Anne Shannon, were presented to the student body at Homecoming Assembly. The theme of this assembly, the best in many years, was "The Apple of Discord." Friday afternoon a tea was held for the sponsors and mothers of the players. Although the game, scheduled for Friday night, had to be postponed on account of rain, the Homecoming dance, sponsored by the Key Club, was actually held before the game.

With beautiful Lorraine Casey ruling as queen, and Penny Howell as Maid of Honor, the game and festivities were a success in spite of the postponement. We won.

B-Squad Shows Promising Form

This year's "B" squad showed great promise in the early season, and it seemed it would go undefeated. The baby Blue Devils were finally beaten, however, and wound up with a 6-2-1 slate. Rusty Fleming, Elliott Nichols, and Fletcher Spigner sparked the "B" squad.

SPONSOR: Miss Betty Byrd; MASCOT: Billy Ratteree.

HEAD CHEERLEADERS: Bill Crosswell, Lorraine Casey.

Dreher's cheerleaders have worked hard this year to hold high the spirit and enthusiasm of her student body. This past summer they met weekly, learning new cheers, making pompoms, and preparing for the coming year's activities.

Our spirit at the pep rallies and games surpassed that of previous years. Nothing could beat a good old bus trip—each out-of-town game was accompanied by about seven bus loads of excited Dreher students.

Homecoming, the most anticipated event of football season, gave the cheerleaders a new task to begin. There were nights of working late at the school. Things were forgotten at the last minute, but everything worked out. Delightful weather (a day late) and a thrilling game made homecoming complete.

Our victorious basketball team was cheered to its many splendid victories by the support of energetic cheerleaders and enthusiastic fans.

None of these activities could have been successful without the guidance and patience of Miss Byrd, our sponsor. This year was a good year, and we will cherish its memories forever.

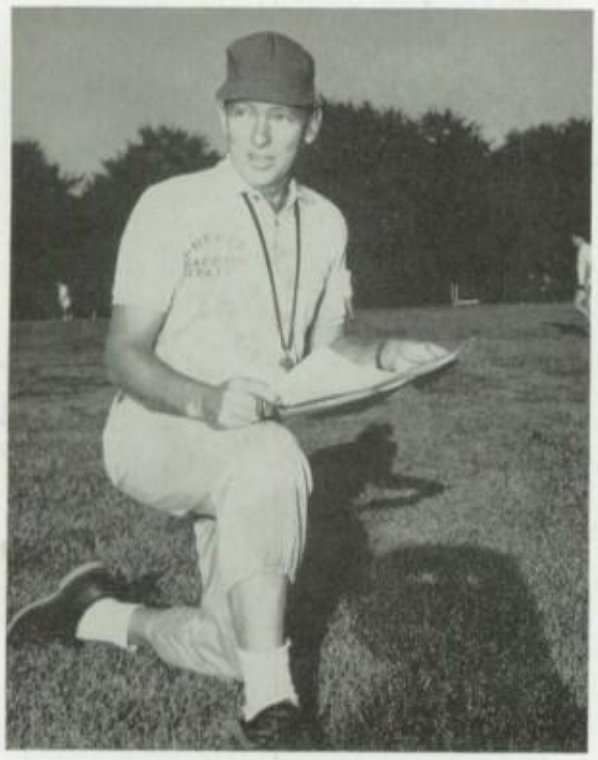
Cindermen Undefeated Since 1953



Coach Stuart

Last year's track team extended the undefeated string to eight years, but bowed out in the State AAA meet. Coach Charles Stuart has whipped the boys into great shape and things look bright for this year's edition.

The 1963 cindermen have speed to burn, but lack the weight men. However, the depth in dashes, hurdles, and field events should power Dreher to a possible state championship. Most of the fine athletes from the past two years are back, which gives the Devils the experience that can often make or break a team.

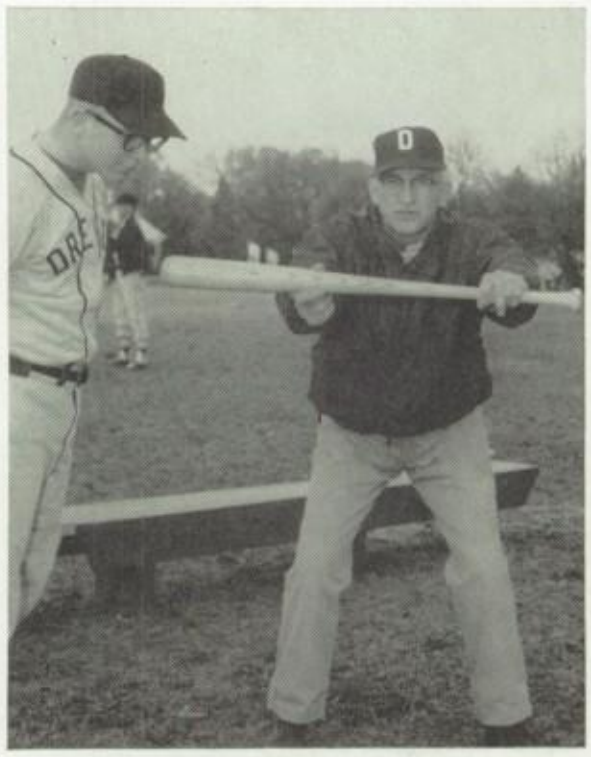
The 1962 baseball boys posted a great 15-3 record, but Coach Henry's last year as a coach will be spent rebuilding. With six starters gone from last year's team, several positions are really up for grabs. Good pitching, a solid defense, and a desire to win should power the Blue Devils to a fine season.

Coach Henry demands enthusiasm, both on and off the field, of his players. The ability to come through in the clutch will put this team into contention for the Mid-State Conference championship.



Coach J. K. Henry shows Bill Ogburn how to bunt.

Although a pretty face is a pleasant thing to view, the girls in Dreher's beauty section have not only good looks, but also the poise, charm, and grace that make their attractiveness complete.

The warmth and friendliness which accompany these pretty faces are apparent to each student at Dreher. Whether they are at the Junior-Senior Dance, at a ball game, or on a regular day of school, these smiling girls produce a comely picture of southern charm.

Epilogue

It is gone. It seems only a moment ago that this Silver Year began, and now it is over. It was but a moment ago in reality, and the longer we are away from it, the shorter that moment will become. This book will prevent that moment from being forgotten. At any time in the future we can spread these pages, and time will roll back. We will be able to remember that most pleasant of times—our Silver Year.
